Description

Nestled in the sought-after area of Paleokastritsa, this property offers a rare opportunity just a short walk from the beach and all local amenities. Set on a generous plot of 5,227 sq.m, surrounded by mature olive and fruit trees, it provides a serene atmosphere of privacy, peace, and natural beauty.

The land benefits from both road access and a charming footpath that connects directly to the main road, leading down to the beach below. At the heart of the property lies a ground-floor building of 156 sq.m, currently arranged as four one-bedroom apartments, presenting excellent potential for transformation. In addition, a separate 15 sq.m building accommodates a small studio, offering further flexibility.

While in need of renovation, this estate holds immense promise. With its spacious grounds and privileged location in one of Corfu's most prestigious coastal regions, it could be converted into a beautiful private residence, a boutique holiday retreat, or an investment property with strong rental appeal.
