Description

Situated on a small headland in the prestigious and sought after North East coast, this is a truly stunning building plot of incomparable beauty – not only does it offer privacy, peace and tranquility, it also has a 100 metres sea frontage. Below the plot is a stunning bay with a small cave and the lagoon like crystal clear turquoise waters add to the magic of this wonderful location.

Well maintained and full of olive trees, this wonderful plot is a rare find – it is within walking distance of local restaurants and mini market and no more than a 10 minute drive from Kassiopi. It also boasts stunning sea views, across the waters to Albania.

With its gentle slope, the plot is easy to build on and ideal for the construction of your villa right next to the sea – there is access via a concreted road that leads directly to it, and water and electricity are just outside.
