Description

Nestled into a hillside with an elevated position, this property has it all – stunning sea and countryside views as well as a path and track road giving access to a secluded bay below. The property offers total privacy, peace and quiet, yet all amenities are within easy reach - the all-year-round village of Sinarades less than a 10-minute drive away, and here you will find a variety of restaurants, tavernas and bars as well as mini-markets and pharmacies. Corfu Town and the airport are no more than a 25-minute drive.

The plot of 5.015 sqm is surrounded by a wonderful variety of trees including in olives and has amazing views to match - an uninterrupted vista of the sea, dramatic coastline and the little island of Keradikia. High quality work has already been completed on the concrete frame /skeleton and the infinity pool, and the property is to be sold at this stage with the designs and planning permission for this stunning contemporary villa.

The plans for the villa include a building of 337 sqm over two levels with an open plan kitchen, living room and dining area. The current configuration is for 5 to 6 bedrooms with ensuite bathrooms, a gym, cinema room and utility rooms. These plans can be amended according to the needs and specifications of the new owner.

The plans also provide for extensive terracing of the plot towards the sea, great for outside living and enjoying the amazing views.
