Description

of grandeur history are embodied in this historical mansion built in 1767! Here the flair of the past blends with the scents of the fruit-bearing trees hosted in the 1,600 sq.m. garden which remains well-preserved by the stone wall set to secure the perimeter of the property. The mansion is in need of renovation but being divided into 2 levels the property offers you endless possibilities to tailor the interior to your needs and lay-out aspirations! The evocative natural surroundings and the stunning views over the rolling mountains and the nearby villages are ideal for those who seek peace and tranquility along with a feeling of nobility! And all that while the beach is only a 10 min. drive from the mansion. One of the few left and preserved in such a condition in northern Corfu, this mansion also has permission for hosting further buildings on the plot. Can you conceive what an opportunity this is?

The by-gone days atmosphere is evident all over the place and in combination with an up-to-date make-over this wonderful mansion could become your personal, secluded fortress of relaxation and peaceful living.
