Description

Set in an elevated hillside position above San Stefanos in the area of Sinies, North East Corfu this lovely large plot of 14,900 sqm offers peace and tranquillity yet local amenities are just a 5 minute drive away and the beaches of San Stefano, Kerasia and Avlaki are a 10 to 15 minute drive. Its boasts stunning views from every part of the plot – the surrounding natural environment, the sea and the mainland across the channel.

The land is 300 metres from an asphalted road and the final 300 metres is accessed via a track road that is in good condition and leads to a dead end. It has a large frontage on the track road, and there are no other properties making this totally private.

Gently sloping and full of olives it is buildable, and rare to find, it could be used either to construct one large very private property on the whole plot or could be divided into two smaller buildable plots.
