Description

In the area of Doukades, in North-West Corfu, just inside the traditional settlement of Doukades is an old stone house. Doukades is one of the most beautiful villages located near Corfu. This adorable little abode has 2 buildings on the property with a yard in between them. These one level houses total 130 mB² combined. Years ago one of the stone buildings was used as a kitchen and the other building was the main house. One of the attractions for this lovely property is the location. You will have a breath taking view of the majestic mountains and the surrounding greenery of nature right at your doorstep. This little stone house is located near the sunny beaches of Paleokastritsa and only 20 minutes away from the busy little town of Corfu. It's the perfect place for someone that enjoys tranquility and beauty. A place you'll love to call home.
