Description

Located in the tranquil hillside above Kassiopi, these delightful stone villas have been renovated in keeping with local Corfiot traditions, retaining the charm and character of the original property.

They boast sea and countryside views – the olive groves of the Kassiopi hillside and Corfiot countryside as well as the stunning sea views across to Albania beyond.

The two villas together offer 270 sqm of living space and are set out as follows:

The first villa, with a living space of 160 sqm has 2 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms (both en-suite) fitted kitchen, living room with an open fireplace and 2 bathrooms. The second villa is 110 sqm and also features 2 bedrooms, kitchen, living room, and a bathroom.

Outside there are paved terraces with stone wall features, shaded seating areas, a large built-in and covered BBQ with a delightful outside dining area for those warm summer evenings, a good sized 50 sqm private pool. A wonderful feature of the property is the olive press which was retained during the renovations.

The current owners rent the property as a 4-bedroom accommodation during the summer season so the property offers good investment potential.

All in all, this lovely property offers you everything – stunning views, total privacy, peace and quiet, yet within easy reach of Kassiopi and the local beaches and it has excellent investment potential.
